

REQUEST FOR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST AFRICENTRIC COURSE PACK MODULES DEVELOPMENT

The Delmore “Buddy” Daye Learning Institute (DBDLI) is transforming the lives of Black/African Nova Scotians and our communities through Africentric research and education. The DBDLI is Nova Scotia’s only institute producing resources and delivering programming from an Africentric lens.

The Delmore “Buddy” Daye Learning Institute (DBDLI) is soliciting submissions for an Expression of Interest (EOI) for the development and production of Africentric Course Pack Modules. These modules will be delivered to organizations serving Black/African Nova Scotian communities. They will also be delivered to ally organizations and businesses who wish to implement policies and processes that infuse Africentricity in all aspects of their work.

This opportunity will be of interest to individuals who:

- have experience with course development
- utilize Universal Design for Learning (UDL) processes
- have experience working with Black/African Nova Scotian communities
- ascribe to Africentric worldviews
- demonstrate Africentricity in their work
- identify as being of African ancestry/descent

Your EOI package must include:

- Letter of Intention of your suitability
- Resume/Curriculum Vitae
- Indication of fee structure or expectations

Please include a sample of your work in relation to the Expression of Interest.
