

Youth Application

The Delmore “Buddy” Daye learning Institute (DBDLI) is seeking Youth from ages 11-13 to participate in the Kuumba: Telling Our Individual and Community Stories by attending one of the two workshop locations and sharing their stories. Two pilot intergenerational workshops are scheduled for the fall in the following communities;

- Guysborough (Saturday, November 4th, 2017)
- Halifax (Saturday, November 18th, 2017)

These two workshops were created for the Elders and youth to collaborate to create stories connected to the history of African Nova Scotians. These stories will be used to inspire youth’s artwork that will compliment the Elders stories.
